1. Authority of Instructors:
Instructors have full legal and academic authority to manage the classroom environment. Any student engaging in disruptive conduct, verbal harassment, or intentional interference with the educational mission of PNW will be dismissed from the class session immediately.

2. Reporting to the Dean of Students:
Persistent disruption or repeated behavioral violations must be formally reported by the instructor to the Office of the Dean of Students within 24 hours of occurrence.
The Dean of Students conducts an investigation under the Student Code of Conduct.

3. Sanctions and Appeals:
Sanctions range from written warnings, behavioral probation, mandatory counseling referrals, to permanent suspension from Purdue University Northwest. Students maintain procedural rights to appeal disciplinary findings through the Campus Appeals Committee.
